Confidentiality and publication

Unless you indicate that your submission is confidential, it will be treated as a public document. It may be published in full on the Department's website, or included in a published summary report of submissions.

If you do indicate that your submission is confidential, it will not be published on the Department's website.

Is this a confidential submission?

Yes No

(If yes, please clearly mark each page of your submission 'confidential')

If only a part of your submission is confidential, for example because it contains a small amount of commercially sensitive information, please provide two clearly marked versions of the submission, a full version and one with the confidential information removed, for publication.

If your submission is published, the Department will include identifying details (author name and state/territory). Contact information (such as names, signatures, addresses or phone numbers) and information may be included in published submissions.

While the Department values public consultation highly and seeks to be transparent, it is under no obligation to publish submissions it receives, and it reserves the right not to publish submissions on its website that raise legal or other concerns.

Privacy

The Department will deal with personal information contained in, or provided in relation to, submissions in accordance with its Privacy Policy (www.environment.gov.au/privacy-policy).

Contact information is collected for the purposes of identifying authors and in case we need to get in touch with you in relation to your submission. Contact information and other personal information contained in submissions may be used, and disclosed within the Department and to other persons, for the purposes of clarifying matters contained in your submission, for related purposes, and otherwise as required or permitted by law. Submissions may also be shared with other Government agencies.

If you are making a submission which contains the personal information of another person, and you have not obtained the person's consent to their information:

- being included in your submission; and
- being used and potentially published by the Department for the purposes set out in this notice, please de-identify or otherwise remove the personal information before providing your submission to the Department.

Liability

The views contained in published submissions are the responsibility of the authors and should not be taken to represent the views of the Department or the Australian Government. Publication does not in any way constitute endorsement of the views of the authors.

The Department does not verify the information contained in published submissions and makes no representation or warranty about the accuracy, reliability, currency or completeness of any material contained in submissions.

The Department disclaims liability, to the extent permitted by law, for any liabilities, losses, damages and costs arising from any information contained in published submissions.

Freedom of Information

A request may be made under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 for access to a submission, including a submission marked 'confidential'. Such requests, including determining whether information is exempt from release, will be handled in accordance with provisions of the Act.

Submission instructions

Submissions are due by 1:00pm AEDT Wednesday 6 November 2019. Any submissions received after this date will be considered at the Department's discretion.

Submissions should be sent electronically, preferably in Microsoft Word or other text-based formats, to the email address below.

All submissions must include this cover sheet and reference the project name.
